- Technical documentation

The technical documentation shall consist of the items provided for in point 1.2 of Annex I and points 1.3.1 and 1.3.2 of Annex III to the Gas Appliances Regulation and in accordance with the following transcription:

“1.2 The manufacturer is under an obligation to analyse the risks in order to identify those which apply to his appliance or fitting. He shall then design and construct it taking into account its risk assessment.

- 1) a general description of the appliance or the fitting,*
- 2) conceptual design and manufacturing drawings and schemes of components, sub-assemblies, circuits, etc.,*
- 3) descriptions and explanations necessary for the understanding of those drawings and schemes and the operation of the appliance or the fitting,*
- 4) a list of the harmonised standards applied in full or in part the references of which have been published in the Official Journal of the European Union and, where those harmonised standards have not been applied, descriptions of the solutions adopted to meet the essential requirements of this Regulation, including a list of other relevant technical specifications applied. In the event of partly applied harmonised standards, the technical documentation shall specify the parts which have been applied,*
- 5) results of design calculations made, examinations carried out, etc.,*
- 6) test reports,*
- 7) instructions for installation and use of the appliance,*
- 8) the EU declaration of conformity of the fitting containing the instructions on how the fitting should be incorporated into an appliance or assembled to constitute an appliance;*

e) the supporting evidence for the adequacy of the technical design solution. This supporting evidence shall mention any documents that have been used, in particular where the relevant harmonised standards have not been applied in full. The supporting evidence shall include, where necessary, the results of tests carried out in accordance with other relevant technical specifications by the appropriate laboratory of the manufacturer, or by another testing laboratory on his behalf and under his responsibility.

1.3.2. Where appropriate, the manufacturer shall also submit to the notified body the following documents:

- a) the EU type-examination certificate and the EU declaration of conformity relating to the fittings incorporated into the appliance,*
- b) attestations and certificates relating to the methods of manufacture and/or inspection and/or monitoring of the appliance or the fitting,*
- c) any other document making it possible for the notified body to improve its assessment.*

The application must include the representative copies of the production envisaged. The notified body may require additional copies if the test program so requires
